THIRTY THIRD ANNUAL SEA ISLE CITY BEACH PATROL'S
CAPTAIN THOMAS P. MCCANN MASCOT SCHOOL AND RACES

Mascot School for the summer of 2012 will be held on Wednesday, July 11 and Thursday, July 12. The school's rain date is Friday, July 13. Saturday, July 14 is the date for the Mascot Races with a rain date of Sunday, July 15. Times for the school and races, which take place at 44th Street on the beach, are from 10:30 AM to 12:15 PM.

Boat rides, beach and water safety, races, games, and refreshments are all part of the Mascot School itinerary. Official mascot shirts will be awarded only to children who participate all three days.

First through third place ribbons will be received by mascots who place in their age group for either the surf bash or foot race. Race participation ribbons will be awarded to all mascots.

The fun and excitement of race competition is the purpose of the Mascot Races; not the ribbons. A hug for participation and effort is a far more meaningful reward. We ask parents to not argue with the lifeguards or upset the children by becoming overly emotional because their child did not receive a first through third place ribbon.

To help defray costs to the sponsors: 7-Eleven, Casino Steaks Pizzeria, Shoobies Restaurant, and the Sea Isle City Beach Patrol, it is necessary to ask for a five dollar donation for each child registered. Registration, which is at the 44th Street Beach Patrol Headquarters on the promenade, is limited to the first 200 four through eight year old boys and girls who are registered by a parent.
